IRS Stakeholder Headliners... and more

Volume # 37

January 14, 2003

This e-mail is being sent to you for distribution to your organization's members. If you need further assistance please contact your local Taxpayer Education and Communication (TEC) office, which can be found at Taxpayer Education and Communication.

Dear Partner,

We are pleased to be able to provide you with the latest IRS information to be included in your newsletter, publications and/or web site. The attached TEC "Headliner Package" includes information regarding IRS launching its national campaign on electronic filing. It is important for small business tax professionals to be prepared to answer their clients' requests for e-file. Also included are two printed advertisements that will appear in professional magazines.

The package includes a drop-in article. We hope that you find the attached information helpful. The drop-in article is convenient for your newsletter or other publications. If possible, we would appreciate a link or copies of articles pertaining to these topics from your organization.

Thanks again for partnering with us to educate your small business members in order to make it easier to fulfill their tax obligations. We hope that this education makes them better business people and their businesses more successful.

Headliners can now be researched by volume and/or topic. Feel free to bookmark this site in your browser or establish a permanent link on your association's home page:

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please contact local TEC office. For more information, please visit our small business web site at www.irs.gov/smallbiz.

P.S. Our next Small Business Forum is scheduled for January 21st at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, 1615 H Street, NW, Washington, DC at 10am.

Thank you
